OUR STORY:

As young children born in the Soviet Union, the life Henry and Olga would once have together was unimaginable. They traveled halfway across the world to find each other, and here in the states they started a family. For years, they would come to the Napa Valley with the best of friends and family, celebrating all the wonder that life had to offer. Slowly, the allure of wine country overtook them. They had a dream...

In 2007, Henry and Olga stumbled upon a place called Terra Del Cuore, and they knew that it would be the home for their vineyard. Together with their three sons, they founded Patland Estate Vineyards. Combining their estate fruit with that of renown Stagecoach Vineyard, Patland is producing some of the finest wine to come out of the Napa Valley today.

CONNOISSEUR'S GUIDE TO CA WINE:

Here is a serious, very deep and exceptionally well-crafted Cabernet that combines great fruity potency with a marked sense of sophistication. Impressive for both its concentration and its exemplary layering, it is full and fleshy and beautifully balanced with abundant blackcurrant fruit framed in lovely oak, and, while it possesses the expected tannic grip of a wine as young as it is, it is not in least rough or ragged thanks to buffering fruit to spare. Set it aside in a hard-to-reach place in the cellar for at least a half-dozen years, but know that, if patience permits, it will do nothing other than improve with ten to fifteen.
